

Please leave Indiana's telephone law alone. It is great not to have to get up to answer the phone to find that it is some joker trying to sell you something. We were getting around 6 to 7 calls a day, It is great not to get even one now.